PUBLIC COMMENT (First Session)

Acting Mayor Elias Coss opened public comment, reminding speakers to limit remarks to three minutes and to state their name and address.

Jean Schonauer, asked whether the QR codes were going to be the same at every meeting and will they be available prior to the meeting so they can look at any of the attachments to legislation. Fiscal Officer Roskos says that it'll probably be a different QR code, but the attachments would be the same and she would be able to find them before the meeting.

Lori White, Hidden Village Development, inquired whether the village has staff who monitor abandoned or vacant homes. Mayor Coss clarified that public comment is not intended as a question-and-answer session but responded and noted there is no dedicated inspector currently driving around monitoring such properties, though a committee is being formed to address this and details will be communicated soon. Lori White pressed further, noting she'd heard ordinances on these properties were changing. Mayor Coss confirmed that fines for vacant/neglected properties are on tonight's agenda. White also raised concern about specific derelict houses near the AmVets building and one near a burned shed, asking that be addressed.

Carmine Petecca, 3885 Red Creek Court, raised concern about snow removal in the Hidden Village cul-de-sac, describing years of snow being pushed onto his yard and damaging his lawn, and stated that road crew drivers have been dismissive when he raised the issue, telling him to speak to the Mayor. Mayor Coss acknowledged the village currently lacks a dedicated road supervisor and is in the process of hiring one or two additional road crew members and committed to discussing snow placement practices with the crew.

John Healon, 4100 Logan's Way, thanked the community for a strong Fourth of July fireworks showing and encouraged residents to read Ohio Register articles regarding the proposed data center adjacent property. He expressed hope that council would still hold a public Q and A session with Province Group regarding the data center so residents could get direct answers without an intermediary filter. The Mayor noted that developments are pending regarding Province Group's updates to both council and the school district.

GOOD AND WELFARE:

A brief exchange followed regarding "meadow benches"- Council Member Pam Jenkins explained that Rich Sundy, a local resident and skilled carpenter (husband of Karen Sundy of the township), built three benches for the meadow area free of charge; the village purchased the wood, Mr. Sundy assembled the project over a weekend. The Village prepared a thank-you note for Mr. Sundy.

REPORTS

Mayor's Report

Mayor Coss thanked the community for a well run and largely rule-complaint Fourth of July fireworks weekend, noting only minor timing violations of about 15-20 minutes in a few instances. Mayor Coss thanked council for their availability during a busy period that included hiring a new police chief, a new police officer, and a new administrative assistant. Mayor Coss provided a detailed update regarding the presentation given in April. All conversations have been through law firms. He informed the attorneys on July 7th that we are not going to be offering an abatement to Province or PILOT agreement, following consultation with the township and JEDD and input from the school district; as of the previous night, Province had not responded. Mayor Coss announced a motion placed on the first reading, not final approval- for a year moratorium on data centers on all village property outside Champion Farms, noting the agreement, Champion Farms would be added to the moratorium.

Mayor Coss also reported that outgoing Solicitor Jim O'Leary, originally set to retire in December, had extended his service multiple times. He gave three months then another three months; plus, three more months. Position was posted on board about a week ago and will be posted for a few weeks. Acting Solicitor Ron Graham sitting in for now is interested in the permanent role, alongside other prospective candidates to be interviewed. The mayor gave an extensive rundown of vacant committee and board seats; one open seat on planning Commission (paused pending resolution of a conflict where an applicant also sought the vacant council seat); all five Board of Zoning Appeals seats technically expired, with outreach planned to confirm incumbents' interest renewal; the Board of Tax Review's three seats also possibly expired; four open seats on the Revive and Thrive Committee (under Curtis) (a five person committee); one open seat on the Communications Committee; an no council members currently serving on the finance committee. Mayor Coss committed to publishing a full list of open committee seats on social media and in the News Herald, along with committee member contact information for public reference. Finally, he encouraged community support for the Lake County Fair (July 27-Aug 2) and 4-H participants, noting the animal auction begins Aug 1st at approximately noon.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT

Acting Solicitor Ron Graham thanked the mayor for his kind words and introduced himself, noting 39 years of legal practice, current service as prosecutor for the Lake County Sheriff and legal advisor to the Eastlake Port Authority, and expressed interest in becoming the village's permanent solicitor.

ENGINEER: Robert B. Parker, P.E.,

Pickleball Court: The surface treatment is scheduled to be installed. He's waiting for an exact date, but that's going to be put on the striping and change the colors. They're also going to put the nets and posts and everything down, the asphalt has to be clean. He noticed the asphalt has has some chalk on it and we're going to have to get the service department maybe out here to clean it up. They will not put it down if the asphalt's not clean. It won't stick. As soon as he gets a date, he will let you know. Council Member Pam Jenkins asked what color. Bob asked Pam if there was a specific color she wanted, if not it is whatever color they decide; there are standard colors. This week, the current expended funds, including the surface for the pickleball courts, is $53,880. The grant from Nature Work is $56,000. The biggest thing left is the fence, and it's going to be expensive, about $20,000 including everything we bid so far. Mayor Coss stated the last thing to bid is the fence, then the gravel around the outside, which the service department is going to do. Coss stated we are getting close. We will be over the grant, but under our original budget.

Drainage Project at Green and Thompson: The drainage project on Thompson and Green is substantially complete. We did a final walkthrough. There are still some grading and stuff that needs to be done, but Bentley's also doing the sidewalks over there, so we are going to hold off on finishing the grading, finalizing that when the sidewalks are complete. There's some punch list items on some other things, but they did a really nice job.

Green Street Water Line Replacement: The Green Street water line- we've had our pre-construction meeting Bentley's moving the start date back to mid-August.

Manchester Bridge: Just talked to Kirk Dimmick today or yesterday. Kirk is the chief deputy over at the county engineer's office. They ran into a snag with the beams, so they're waiting for the beams to get delivered. They are hoping to get them next week.

Catch basins and sidewalks: That project that Bentley's doing includes all of Thompson sidewalks on the south and west side of Thompson. There are also two catch basins that we are reconstructing, both on Main Street. Bricks are dislodged, so we are going to have Bentley pull those apart, reset the bricks, and repave everything. That should start in Mid-August, cause they're gonna be doing the water line, and they will have the crew over doing the sidewalks.

Lastly, the catch basin in front of AmVets was blocked. AmVets came, and their parking lot was flooding, so we had Lake County come out to televise it. When they did that, the contractor actually got a jet nozzle stuck in the lateral from the catch basin over to the main crossing Main Street. Bentley is gonna be digging that up, trying to figure out why it's disconnected. They are gonna replace a section of the PVC pipe from the catch basin over the original lateral and make sure that's connected. A contractor is going to come out and flush all of that at the same time in case there's another issue. It's all being done through stormwater.

FISCAL OFFICER:

Financials Report and Appointees to Finance Committee; Fiscal Officer John Roskos reported we need new members on Finance Committee. Also, no word from Auditors still; please submit proposals for 2027 Budget Prior to August Council Meeting. We would like to start working on more detailed budget for next year. Finally, we need a final determination for PEP Grant as they require and invoice. Go ahead with the Shannon Fence Quote. Followed up on pressure washer.

POLICE CHIEF:

Police Chief Dan Shook, thanked everyone for the job. He thanked Sgt. Orf as he has done a good training the new hire; officer sworn in comes with experience so his training has been condensed. Last night he was shadowing with Sgt. Orf. The chief also thanked Lt. Collins; he's done a real good job helping with the transition getting me set up in the right direction and reporting software. Also, working on budget for next year. Chief Shook is also working on evaluations and doing a full analysis of the department. There are some strengths that we can build on. There are also some weaknesses that we can improve on. Putting a plan together so we can put a plan in place and move forward with improvements.

PUBLIC WORKS: (None)

ZONING

Zoning Inspector Christian Gray thanked the mayor for working to fill committee vacancies and reported 64 new homes permitted and approved so far this year, along with right-of-way permits (including Enbridge gas line work), roughly 20 deck permits, and new fence permits, totaling 179 permits issued year-to-date. Looking forward to getting back on track with meetings for planning commission.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT:

JEDD/PEDC- Council Member Pam Jenkins reported she went to 1st JEDD (disc. of meeting) they are finishing up the Perry Park Road sanitary sewer. Completion date of October 8th. Next project will be the water line on Perry Park Road. Perry Township has been fully reimbursed $1 million by county for Perry Park project.

Planning Commission- No meetings

COUNCIL MEMBERS REPORTS:

Elias Coss- Mayor Coss reported he had a leadership meeting with the Police Department, Sgt. Orf, Lt. Collins, Chief Shook, and that went very well. Meeting with the department in the next 10 days. Mayor Coss described Chief Shook and why he aligned with himself and council members; he is making sure our leadership is involved in the community. Citations have increased, OVI's have increased. Mayor Coss did a ride along with Chief Shook. Coss introduced himself along with the Chief to residents in the community. Coss commended Chief Shook taking his words and acting on them. Showcasing the good.

Curtis Curd- Curd reported the employee handbook revisions are on track, and expected to go before council for three readings in October, November, and December with an effective date of the first paycheck in January 2027, incorporating updated code and federal laws.
Cation.

Brian Farley- Farley reported on the Communications Committee, noting one seat remains open and the first meeting is targeted for late August.

Pam Jenkins- Jenkins thanked Elias; she reported change has been great. Communication has been good; involves us in everything; have done a lot. Happy with hires. Chief Shook has been great and handled the fishing derby and helped out a lot. Sebrina, is a ray of sunshine, helping John a lot. Battery tube is finally settled on a location at the park but away from buildings, will be located where the mailbox was. Hopefully will be ready next week.

Summer Fun Day Was awesome, had great weather and volunteers. Elias and Kayla popped popcorn for four hours. We gave away almost 200 popsicles. We had people sign waivers for slip and slide. There was always a line and the line never stopped. A fire volunteer showed up and stayed all day, checked wrist bands and flagged the kids through. John, Barb, TJ Rockwell were there most of the day. The kids had fun and we had lots of activities and good reports. Garden is fine. Talking about having a couple programs in August. Telescopes on August 28th, and a speaker to come and talk about native flowers. Photo contest started July 1st will go until the day before the Fall Festival. You can submit five photos. No professional photographers and anywhere in the village. Winner will be announced at the Fall Festival. Pickleball Court, we invited Esther Daniels; her husband did the asphalt she knows everything about pickle ball. She works with Fairport, the Senior Center, Mentor. She wrote somethings down she would help us with like communication. There's this app called Team Reach App; we use to sign up to play in the winter and in the summer and she will set that up for us. She suggested a display case for rules and a play at your own risk sign. She would also set up weekly leagues and monthly tournaments if we want. Men, woman, mixed doubles. She has a one-day program; it's a couple of hours but it teaches people how to play smart and safely, like what kind of shoes to get to reduce injuries on the pickleball court. She has a pickleball breakfast club series. There needs to be a system. It's a real simple bucket system. You hang the buckets on the fence, and then the people put their paddles in there and that's how they decide who goes next. There needs to be some organization to make this a successful and a pleasant experience for the community. We just want to ease into this fall and let the community enjoy it and we will get organized this winter and offer some of these classes and things next spring. Council member Jenkins stated some of the things Esther talked about she'd like to talk to Elias and just get some signs ordered and the buckets. There will be a gravel sidewalk up the hill and two gates on the south side.

Rebecca "Becky" Shimko- Nothing really. Haven't had planning commission. Will meet.

PURCHASE & APPROVALS:

Mayor Coss presented the approval of purchases for the period of June 12 through July 9.

Motion to approve purchases from June 12 through July 9 made by Pam Jenkins; seconded by Brian Farley. Roll call: Elias Coss — yes; Brian Farley — yes; Pam Jenkins — yes; Becky Shimko — yes; Curtis Curd — yes; Motion approved 5-0.

PUBLIC COMMENT (comments may be directed to the Mayor or Council members only, may pertain to any topic specifically discussed at this meeting, and will be limited to 3 minutes):

Carmine Petecca asked whether council or the mayor had considered opening meetings with a moment of silence, prayer, or the Pledge of Allegiance, citing the strength of the local church community.

Unnamed Resident asked whether the proposed data center moratorium would affect the Champion Farms property; Mayor Coss confirmed it would not, due to the existing purchase agreement, pending Province's Group decision on whether to proceed with the purchase. The same resident asked recouping road damage costs from developers building near the Route 84 intersection; Engineer Bob Parker explained that a "road user agreement"- requiring a bond before construction begins- it is the standard mechanism, though it was too late to apply retroactively in this case, and noted the county requires such agreements for future developments. The resident also asked about the process for filing the vacant council seat (following Mike Glover's resignation); Mayor Coss explained that council has 30 days to interview and vote on a replacement, after which the decision reverts to the mayor, and that he extended the deadline by one week to allow candidate interviews to be completed, given scheduling conflicts including vacations.

Resident Dawn Bubonic thanked the council for listening to the community and specifically praised the moratorium and the effort to align the village, township, and school district. She asked about the closing deadline for Province Group's Champion Farms purchase; Mayor Coss stated it is approximately June 27th or 29th of next year, subject to possible extension under entitlement provisions. She also asked about a recently publicized report regarding possible soil contamination on the property; Mayor Coss stated he had only learned of the report and had not yet had the opportunity to review it.

Resident Jean Schonauer asked whether, if Province Group withdraws, Champion Farms would then be added to the moratorium; Mayor Coss confirmed it would, aligning with the township's likely approach for its own portion. She also asked whether a master plan exists for the park given the addition of the pickleball court, referencing prior comments about wildlife entering the community garden from the meadow. Council Member Pam Jenkins responded that a five-year park plan has been under discussion for about two months, including potential relocation of the garden due to planned playground expansion and clarified that deer entering the garden predate the meadow's creation.

Resident Larry Hackley raised concerns about the cost of the Tahoe police cruiser relative to a Dodge Durango, prompting Chief Shook to explain that officers spend up to 12-hour shifts in the vehicle, justifying the comfort and equipment investment. Hackley also suggested the village publish a weekly police blotter in the Lake County Tribune/Gazette, similar to neighboring communities, to counter public skepticism about call volume; Mayor Coss responded with a detailed explanation of planned changes to police reporting, moving from monthly to weekly reports with granular details on stops, citations and warnings by officers. Hackley followed up questioning why previous Chief Williams' department didn't issue more citations; Mayor Coss noted historical leniency in small communities and his intent to increase enforcement of clearly excessive speeding while explicitly disclaiming any intent to become like Lyndhurst or Cleveland Heights.

Resident Lori White asked about fireworks display costs, promoting Mayor Coss to clarify the village has never held its own firework show apart from the fall festival, which costs roughly $10,000 including required fire marshal staffing and insurance; the fireworks she's seen were from private residents on Main Street, Harper, Middle Ridge, and the Center/Route 20 corner.

Reporter Bill Debus asked clarifying questions about the council-seat appointment timeline (confirming the interview process and a special council meeting the following Thursday at 5:00 PM with provision to vote if a candidate is identified), about whether the data center moratorium would proceed through additional readings and be formalized in writing (confirmed yes), and about a funding sources for park safety items (flares, cones, blockades) beyond the PEP grant-funded gate, which Mayor Coss confirmed will be drawn from other budget lines.

Unnamed Resident asked whether council had considered requiring helmets for children riding e-bikes; Mayor Coss stated no formal discussion had occurred yet, though it is a topic of personal interest.
